

DIOCESE OF LINCOLN
faithful · confident · joyful

Vicar

Priory Church, Deeping St James

Deeping St James is a single benefice of 7300 people situated nine miles east of Stamford, comprising an old village centre and modern residential developments.

We are looking for a Vicar who has spiritual depth and vision and who can help us develop our future strategy and outreach across the local area. He/she will lead the parish and work with us to:

- promote effective collaborative working
- engage effectively with the wider community
- help develop a strategy to grow the congregation
- build up discipleship and lay ministry
- enable both traditional and more informal styles of worship
- use music as one of the vehicles for mission
- develop new ways of working across the Deepings 'cluster'
- encourage work with children and young families.
