

Dear all

A very quick note today – I hope to be able to catch some of you in time.

2 requests:

1. We are having a spring clean of the church in time for the Easter services. We will be meeting tomorrow (Monday 29th) morning at 10.00am. If you are able to, please join us – masked appropriately, and, if possible, please bring your own cleaning things (dusters, polish, brushes/brooms etc.).
2. We are still looking for folk to sign up for a half-hour meditation slot on Maundy Thursday evening. Times still available 9.00-11.00pm (thanks to those who have signed up for the last 2 slots!).

Something quick to share with you that I have just discovered – not religious, just incredibly beautiful.

I have shared links to Voces8 before. They are stunningly beautiful singers, though I don't always go for their choice of repertoire. This link popped into my Facebook page. A folk song crossover would be the sort that often does not appeal to me. However, I love this version of the song Underneath the Stars, by Kate Rusby.

\(1\) VOCES8: Underneath the Stars - YouTube

For comparison, here is the original (equally beautiful, but in a different way!).

\(1\) Kate Rusby Underneath The Stars Cambridge Folk Festival 2005 - YouTube

Stay safe.

Blessings and love

Mark