

2nd August 2021

Dear all,

Just a very quick note this time. After my day off tomorrow, I will be taking a few days off, having a 'staycation'! I resume work on Saturday 14th August.

Here is the information for Sunday's service:

The hymns will be Dear Lord and Father of Mankind and Alleluia Sing to Jesus.

The readings for the service are 1 Kings 19 4-8, 9-15, Ephesians 4:25 – 5:2 and John 6:35, 41-51. The Psalm is Psalm 34: 1-8.

Anglican chant: Psalm 34 "I Will Always Give Thanks unto the Lord" - YouTube

Psalm 34 ~ Sons of Korah - YouTube

And Gospel version: The Brooklyn Tabernacle Choir - Psalm 34 \(Live\) - YouTube

Anthems suggested are:

Giaochino Rossini - Chorus for mixed voices \(1857\) - "O salutaris hostia" \(Stuttgart Vocal Ensemble\) - YouTube

Elgar: O salutaris hostia - YouTube

Verily, verily I say unto you - Tallis - YouTube

Tantum Ergo \(Charles Marie Widor\) Gablerorgel - Basilikachor Weingarten - Kirchenmusik - YouTube

Don't forget to get involved in the Resourcing Sustainable Church conversation – have a chat with me about it if you would like more information, and, above all, please pray as we work through the process.

Stay safe.

Blessings and love
