

Dear all,

Sorry this is so late. Things have cropped up over the last couple of days. This will be my last letter for a couple of weeks, as I will be on leave from 3rd-17th August. During this time, if there is an emergency, please contact Jan or Nick – or if a priest is needed, Sonia.

There will be no live broadcast of the service for the first 2 weeks of August. There will also be no Choral Evensong on 7th August.

I'm therefore going to make this letter 3 weeks-worth of links, with no additional comment.

I would however make a plea – we have got a couple of volunteers to help being 'guinea-pigs' for our Christians Against Poverty (CAP) money course, on 27th August. It would be helpful to have a couple more. A reminder that we're not in this instance asking people to talk about their own personal budgets (unless they wish to!) – rather we're asking them to role play, making up figures so that we can speak to them, and get some feedback. Please let me know if you are able to help.
