Dear all

I hope and pray that you are well, and are finding some peace in this troubled time.

I would like to share with you something from a posting of my former area bishop, the Rt Revd Jonathan Clark, Bishop of Croydon. He shared an act of worship, designed by St John's Church, Selsdon – with permission to reproduce. I have attached it here.

It is called 'Walking on Holy Ground', and takes place outdoors. I will be using it, walking round DSJ tomorrow (Sunday) at the usual service time of 10.00am. Please feel free to join me – observing the recommended social distancing conditions – if you feel that you are able. You may wish to use it on your own at another time. I will produce copies to be left at the back of church for anyone to use when they wish.

Blessings

Mark
