

Dear all

Just a quick email today.

We have recorded the service for Easter 6 in the church, which can be found at this link:

Just in case you didn't pick it up yesterday, I also attach the order of service with links to YouTube recordings of the hymns. I have just remembered that, contrary to what I said on the video, I did not manage to find a decent recording of the 3rd hymn, so you can't listen to it. My apologies.

Nick Fawcett's prayer for today:

Though the day grows dark, Lord,
may your light continue to shine.
Though our fears be overwhelming,
may your peace be more powerful still.
Though days on occasions feel lonely,
may your presence continue to sustain us.
Though time sometimes hangs heavy,
may we appreciate each moment you give us.
Though we feel weak and vulnerable,
may your strength be sufficient for our needs.
Though we are anxious about loved ones,
may your love bring reassurance.
Though we grieve for those we have lost,
may your eternal promises bring comfort.
Though the future feels bleak,
may trust in you bring hope.
Though all things seem to conspire against us,
may you somehow turn even the bad to good.
Though all else fail, Lord, assure us that you will not.
Amen.

Stay safe

Blessings and love

Mark
